AN ELEVEN ROOM HOUSE. It Is In Holona and Colonel Road Can Have It.

BUTTE, Dec. 7.—The always placid and contented looking countenance of Col. John B. Read of the Inter-Mountain was wreathed in smiles all day to-day. No particular attention was paid to this for a while, as the colonel has the gift which is remarkably rare among newspaper men, of always appearing happy and at peace with all the world. But when it was learned that he continued to chuckle and learned that be continued to chuckle and laugh softly to himself as he passed along the street, a STANDARD reporter finally ventured to approach him and inquire the cause of his mirth. For reply, Mr. Read handed him the following letter:

My DEAR SIR:—I understand that you are to locate in Helean very shortly. I wish to know if you need a bouse. I have for rent a large house containing it rooms, with all modern conveniences, including furnace, hot and cold water, both, speaking tube, electric bells, etc., also range, expets for the hails, and a few other pieces of furniture. The house is situated in the very best part of the city, has a beautiful lawn, and is in fact, complete in every particular. The rent is very reasonable and it will be vacant by the first of the year.

I would like to hear from you regarding this matter if convenient.

I would like the state of the s Those who know Mr. Read the best will best appreciate the joke which this letter carries with it. Mr. Read bears the reputation, among the ladies at least, of being the most confirmed old bachelor in the camp, numerous hearts have been laid at his feet and the ladies have been particularly active in exercising their privilege in the last 11 months, but the colonel could never find one that exactly suited him and for the last 13 years has continued to enjoy a life of single blessedness in one small and elegantly furnished room. It was the combined idea of his removing to Helena in the first place and of his requiring an 11-room house when he got there in the second place which so amused Mr. Read and led to the investigation on the part of the reporter. Mr. Read wrote Mr. Little to-day stating that if he goes to Helena he will require a house with at least 15 rooms and a large lawn for the children to enjoy themselves on.

Special Dispatch to the Standar DEER LODGE, Dec. 7.—The trial of the case of Mrs. Z. O. Sawyer against James T. Quigley was resumed in the district court this morning, and at noon the evi-dence was all in and the arguments nearly finished. The next case will be the city of Anaconda against Charles O'Connor.

The case of the state of Montana against Frank Burke, charged with grand larceny, which had been set down for trial on Friday, was disposed of by his coming into court and pleading guilty. He was sentenced by the court to one year in the penitentiary at hard labor.

The case of the state against Burke which was set for Friday, was the last or the trial calendar. As that has been dis-posed of, it looks as though the term would be finished this week and the jury excused from further attendance.

BUTTE, Mont., Nov. 10, 1882.

DR. C. SCHULTZ, City.—I desire to make the following statement relative to my case in the hope that other unfortunate sufferers like myself may be equally benefited. I had been suffering for about three years from seminal weakness, lost manhood and nervous prostration, causing melaneholy and loss of siep. My body was covered with ulcers and my forehead being swollen just over the eyebcows so badly as to have the appearance of growing horns. I was unable to obtain more than one hour's uninterrupted sieep at case time, the terribid lichling and mental suffering caused by my disease making it impossible for me to sieep or rest. When my disease first appeared I consuited local physicians without relef. I then attempted to cure myself by using patent medicines, but again failing I consuited and was treated by several American specialists, who also failed to cure me. I was despaired of every being cared, but a friend of mine recommending you I decided to try once more and so put myself under your care with the result that after only two weeks' treatment I feel like a new man and am able to return to my work.

I take pleasure in certifying to this statement before a rotary public and will recommend you personally to all my friends and acquaintances.

Subscribed and sworn before me on this toth day of November, 1822. C. L. CARTERIA.
